

Level 1.5Baby's First Haircut

1. Shane is one year old.
2. Mom likes Shane's hair because it has nice curls.
3. A woman mistakes Shane for a girl because of his longer hair.
4. Shane will get his hair cut tomorrow.
5. Dad and Mom take Shane to get his first haircut.

Baby Kate Loves Books!

1. Kate likes big pictures because they are easier to see.
2. Kate likes to see bright colors in books.
3. Wordless books are books without words. Wordless books have only pictures.
4. Kate's mom has books in the house, in the car, and in her purse.
5. Mom reads to baby Kate every day.

A Baby Shower

1. Sun gets a note in the mail.
2. A baby shower is a party for a new baby.
3. The shower is for Paige (and her expected baby).
4. Sun says that she is glad to come to the party and says, "I'll see you there," to Paige.
5. Sun may give Paige baby clothes, toys, books, or bath things.

A Bedtime Routine

1. Craig takes a bath.
2. Craig has toast and jam with a glass of milk for snack.
3. After his snack, Craig brush's his teeth.
4. Story time is the best part of getting ready for bed.
5. Dad does the same routine each night because it helps Craig prepare for a good night's sleep.

Blood Pressure Check

1. Jill has high blood pressure. Her doctor has asked her to check it regularly to see if it gets higher.
2. Jill's doctor wants Jill to check hers blood pressure once a week.
3. Jill goes to the drug store to check her blood pressure.
4. The clerk at the drug store helps Jill.
5. Still means not moving.

Cell Phones at Work

1. People talk on their cell phones in the car, in stores, and while walking down the street.
2. Wise means having good judgment, making good decisions and good choices.
3. Bill does not use his cell phone while working because his boss does not want workers to use cell phones while they are on the job.
4. Bill uses his cell phone only during breaks and his lunch hour.
5. At the end of the work day, Bill punches out on the time clock and turns on his cell phone.

Doctor Visits and Work

1. Ruth works the day shift in an egg plant.
2. Ruth calls the clinic during her break.
3. Ruth will have her exam at 9:00 on Monday morning.
4. Ruth tells her boss the date and time of her exam.
5. The boss thanks her for making the appointment in the early part of the work day.

Fall is Here

1. B. - Days get shorter in the fall.
2. There are more school buses on the roads in the fall because children have returned to school.
3. The fall leaves are brown, gold and red.
4. People rake the leaves into piles.
5. Kids jump in the leaves.
6. Some apples taste sweet and others are sour.

A Family Outing

1. The whole family goes on the outing – Jay, Joan, Mom, and Dad.
2. Sleds are put in the trunk of the car.
3. The snow hill is at the park.
4. The family members scream and laugh as they are sledding down the hill, plus they talk together about their fun day of sledding.
5. The family goes to the warming house to get warm.

Fran's Family Garden

1. Fran and her kids planted their garden in the spring.
2. They used a hoe to make the rows.
3. C – Things in a straight line.
4. They planted five rows of seeds.
5. Fran put a fence around the garden to keep the rabbits out.

Greetings

1. Pam and Bob were strangers before they met.
2. Pam met Bob at work.
3. They greeted each other with words and a handshake.
4. Kris lives in Texas.
5. Close friends and family members often greet each other with a hug.

Job Interview Tips

1. The word nervous means tense or worried; not relaxed.
2. Ming is nervous because she has her first job interview in two days and she is unsure of what to expect.
3. She asks her teacher, Gail, for help.
4. Some of the tips Gail writes on the board are:
 - a. Know where to go for the interview.
 - b. Be there on time. (Don't be late!)
 - c. Wear neat, clean clothes
 - d. Smile and be friendly.
 - e. Ask questions that you have about the job.
5. Ming should ask about pay at the end of the interview.

- Joe's Workday
1. Joe's job starts at 8:00 a.m.
 2. Joe's boss is happy because Joe is on time.
 3. Joe works at the pet store.
 4. He feeds the birds first.
 5. Raise means to earn more money, or to get a higher wage.
- Laundry Day
1. Sol's laundry day is Monday.
 2. Sol needs money, soap, and her dirty clothes.
 3. Sol likes the Rinse and Shine Laundry best because it is clean, the wash machines work well, and there is a coffee shop in the building.
 4. Sol washes two loads of clothes.
 5. Sol reads the newspaper.
- License, Please
1. Dave stops his car because he sees flashing red lights; a police officer wants him to stop.
 2. A headlight needs to be fixed.
 3. The officer asks to see his driver's license.
 4. Dave has to pay a fine because he did not have his driver's license with him.
 5. The fine is $102.00.
- Sharing a Meal on Family Night
1. Family night for the Cranes is Monday evening.
 2. Mom and Dad make corn on the cob and grilled meat for supper.
 3. Nan washes some grapes and puts them in a bowl. She also toasts some bread.
 4. Rob pours milk.
 5. The children learn how to cook, how to set the table, and how to clean up after a meal.
 6. Enjoy means to like to do something, or to have a good time doing something.
- Silverware
1. Fresh fruit, crackers, cookies, and string cheese are all finger foods.
 2. Knives, forks and spoons are silverware.
 3. Chai uses his knife to cut fish and meat. He also uses it to spread butter on bread.
 4. Chai uses a fork to eat things like meat, rice, pasta, French toast, and eggs.
 5. Chai uses his spoon to stir foods like oatmeal and to eat foods like soup and ice cream.
- Two-Week Notice
1. Lea has worked at a child care center for three years.
 2. Lea has just gotten a job as a clerk at the food store.
 3. Lea starts her new job in two weeks.
 4. Lea's boss puts the child care opening in the newspaper.
 5. Pleased means happy, or feeling good about something.

Using TV Wisely

1. Sam and Ruth like to watch Dora.
2. Sam talks with Ruth about what Dora and her friends see and do, and he asks Ruth questions about the TV show characters.
3. Sam sets the TV rules.
4. The rules for Ruth's TV viewing are she can watch only one hour of TV a day and she can watch only planned shows.
5. Sam and Ruth choose Ruth's weekly TV shows together.

Zip Code

1. Juan lives in Marshall.
2. It is the postal worker's job to deliver the mail.
3. Juan's zip code is 56258.
4. There are 5 numbers in a zip code.
5. Juan writes his zip code on many forms, letters and bills.