

Looking for a Job

Pre-reading

Questions:

- Are you looking for a job?
- Do you know where to look for a job?

Definitions:

- Advertisement – a notice that tells about goods or services for sale or for hire
- Library – a place with lots of books, and other information
- Workforce Center – a place that helps people find jobs

Reading

16 Are you looking for a job? Sam is looking for a job. He wants to work in a store.

19 Sam’s friend, Juan, just found a job. Juan told Sam where he looked 33 for a job.

35 Juan looked in the local newspaper. The newspaper has advertisements
45 for jobs. He read all the advertisements for jobs.

54 Juan looked at the public library. He asked for help. Some of the 67 information was on the computer.

72 Juan looked for “Help Wanted” signs. He talked to store owners to ask
85 about a job.

88 He told his friends he was looking for a job. Juan’s friends told him
102 about jobs where they worked.

107 Juan visited the Workforce Center. The people there want to help you
119 find a job. The person there told Juan about a job. Juan got that job.

134 Juan hopes that Sam will find a job too.

143

