Family Fun at the Park

Pre-reading

Questions:
• What fun things does your family do?

Definitions:
• Exercise – activity done to keep the body or mind strong and healthy
• Picnic – a meal eaten outdoors

Reading

Deb does not have to go to work or school on Sunday. Deb and her family like spending time together. On Sundays, they often go to the park. The park is fun for everyone. There are young and old people at the park. It does not cost anything to enter most parks. It is free!

Deb and her family enjoy staying healthy. Exercise keeps Deb and her family healthy. Deb and her daughter, Jenny, walk to the park from their home. Deb’s sons, Alan and Jeff, ride their bikes to the park. Walking and bike riding are good forms of exercise.

The children like to play at the park. The park has a large basketball court. Jenny plays basketball with her friends. Jeff likes to climb on the playground equipment. Alan likes to swing on the swings. Deb enjoys pushing him on the swing. They laugh and play together.

Deb and her family have fun at the park. They enjoy being outside. They enjoy staying healthy! Running on the basketball court is good exercise. Climbing is good exercise. Swinging and pushing are good exercise.

For lunch, Deb unpacks a healthy picnic. The family enjoys picnics at the park. They eat turkey sandwiches, apples, carrots and milk. Good foods keep Deb’s family healthy. Exercise also keeps the family healthy. Everyone has a great time at the park!
Understanding

1. What does the word enjoy mean? ____________________________________________

2. What does Alan like to do at the park? ____________________________________________

3. How does Deb’s family get to the park? ____________________________________________

4. What day does the family go to the park? _________________________________________

5. Why do they go to the park? ____________________________________________________

6. List some forms of exercise. _____________________________________________________

7. If you were planning a healthy picnic, what would you pack? _______________________

Writing

Choice A: What does your family do for fun? When and where do you do it?

Choice B: In your own words, write about what Deb and her family do for fun. Do you enjoy doing the same activities as Deb’s family?

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________________________